RESUME FOR KEISHA S PERKINS

Professional Experience

Coding Instructor The Futures Fund
2017 to Present

- Instructs weekly class of 10 to 15 middle school students in front-end development.
- Devised curriculum that is currently being used to teach all Coding Level One students in the program.
- Designs exercises and activities to better demonstrate techniques involved in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript development.

Freelance Designer and Developer KayEssPeaDesign
2015 to Present

- Generates digital and print designs to suit clients' needs and requirements.
- Works to help clients understand what their business or project needs regard to print and digital media.
- Creates websites to meet the client demands and increase client business.

Library Technician East Baton Rouge Parish Library
2011 to Present

- Charges and discharges books, collects fines, renews books, and registers new patrons using the library's automated circulation system.
- Assists readers in the selection and location of library materials.
- Receives and processes select print and non-print materials.

Volunteer Experience

Coding Instruction Louisiana Women in Technology (La-WIT)
2016 to Present

- Acted as a coach in the annual Rails Girls workshop.
- Composed an original JavaScript workshop using the p5.js library for game development.
- Teaches advanced workshop as a part of La-WIT's annual IT Girls event.

Coding Instruction Louisiana Women in Technology (La-WIT)
2017 to Present

- Develops unique artwork for various sermons and series taught at the church.
- Drafts promotional artwork for events put on by the church.
- Prepares social media templates for the church's accounts.

Technologies

HTML CSS JavaScript Git/GitHub Adobe Photoshop Adobe InDesign

Adobe Illustrator Adobe After Effects